

Jefferson County Township Association Christmas Party 12/5/09

Terry Bell, Salem Township Trustee Receives Honor

Terry Bell, Salem Township Trustee, was named 2009 Jefferson County Township Trustee Association Trustee Official of the year during the 42nd annual Raymond C. Amoroso Christmas Dinner and Awards Banquet. Bell was recognized for spearheading the “Save Jefferson Lake State Park” and “Stop Township Road Damage” a statewide campaign involving 88 county township associations.

Scott Fabian, JCTA President, served as master of ceremony. The evening started with a moment of silence in memory of Steven Michael Pesta, a Ross Township Trustee, who suddenly past way September 2009. The evening’s program included Fr. Dan Heusel, Invocation and Benediction; Mayor Domenick Mucci, welcome from the City of Steubenville; Carl Sgalla, Presidential welcome for the JCTA. The 185 guest heard from three speakers, Larry Johns, Ohio Township Association President, Rob Herrington, Director of Jefferson County E-911 and Lou Gentile, former Assistant Director, Ohio Office of Appalachia.

Other award winners were: Rob Herrington, Hometown Leadership Award; Raymond D’Andrea, Lifetime Achievement Award, accepting the award on behalf of their father, daughters Debbie Schaughen & Diane Gribble; Larry Johns, Award of Gratitude, outgoing Ohio Township Association President.

First Row L-R: Rob Herrington, Debbie Schaughen, Diane Gribble, Terry Bell

Second Row: L-R: Lou Vandeborne. Article written by Scott Fabian, Executive Committeeman, JCTA